Kevin Cardiff

Education

1983	Bachelor of Arts, University of Washington
1991	Master of Business Studies, University College Dublin
2003	Diploma in Applied Finance Law, Law Society of Ireland

Professional experience

2010 - 2012	Secretary General, Department of Finance
2006 - 2010	Second Secretary General, Department of Finance
2005 - 2006	Assistant Secretary, Tax Policy, Department of Finance
2001 - 2005	Assistant Secretary, Banking, Finance and International Division, Department of Finance
1999 - 2001	Principal Officer, Freedom of Information and Ethics Central Policy Unit, Department of Finance
1998 - 1999	Principal Officer, 'Vote Control'/Administrative Budgets Section, Department of Finance
1996 - 1998	Assistant Principal, Public Sector Pensions Policy, Department of Finance
1989 - 1996	Assistant Principal, Monetary and Exchange Rate Policy Unit, Department of Finance
1988 - 1989	Administrative Officer, Domestic Government Debt dealing (assistant bond dealer), Department of Finance
1986 - 1988	Administrative Officer, Civil Service Conditions of Employment, Department of Finance/Department of Public Service
1984 - 1986	Administrative Officer, Pay Policy, Department of the Public Service

Additional duties included a number of associated positions at various times in recent years, including:

- Member of the Central Bank Commission
- Alternate Director and Director of the European Investment Bank
- Chairman and member of the Irish Government's Tax Strategy Group
- Irish Representative on the EU taxation 'Code of Conduct' Group
- Member and alternate member of the EU Financial Services Committee

Mr Cardiff became a Member of the European Court of Auditors on 1 March 2012. He is a member of Chamber I "Preservation and management of natural resources".