

Maria Julve is the Head of Division of Non-Financial Risk at the ECB, within the Directorate General Horizontal Line Supervision. Under her current portfolio Maria is responsible of Governance and Risk Management, including the Anti Money Laundering Coordination Unit, and of Operational Risk, IT and Resilience.

Maria has developed all her career in the field of banking supervision and regulation. She joined the SSM from its inception in 2014, as Head of Section and Joint Supervisory Team Coordinator of several Significant Institutions across the SSM. Prior to that, Maria held different positions at Banco de España in the Directorate General of Banking Supervision.

She holds a Master's degree in Business Administration by Colegio Universitario de Estudios Financieros, Madrid.