

MIHAILS KOZLOVS

Mihails Kozlovs is Member of the European Court of Auditors since May 2016. Until February 2018, he worked in Chamber V – “Financing and administering the Union” where he was responsible preparing the Court’s contribution to the review of the MFF, the opinion on the European Fund for Strategic Investments (EFSI), the performance audit plan for EFSI and public participation in EU law-making, and Chapter 2 “Budgetary and financial management” of the 2016 and 2017 annual reports.

Currently, Mr Kozlovs is Dean of Chamber IV – “Regulation of Markets and competitive economy”. He is Reporting Member for audits/reviews on Energy Union, EU financing for Euronews, Ethical frameworks in the EU institutions, Control of state aid to financial institutions, EU space assets, EU anti-money laundering, Remarks of the Court on the 2021-2027 multiannual financial framework, and Chapter 4 “Competitiveness for growth and jobs” of the 2018, 2019, 2020 and 2021 annual reports.

Mr Kozlovs contributes to the internal management of the Court as Member of the Administrative Committee. He also worked at the Strategic Foresight Advisory Panel in charge of the Court’s Strategy for 2021-2025.

From April 2012 – April 2016, he was Deputy Director (Economics, Finance, EU Budget – ECOFIN) and Adviser at the Latvian Ministry of Finance and Permanent Representation to the EU in Brussels. He was involved in implementation of the EU Semester at the level of the EU Council and the Economic and Financial Committee. During the Latvian Presidency of the EU in 2015, Mr Kozlovs was responsible for overseeing and delivery of the ECOFIN agenda as well as Chairman of the EU Council of Ministers working party on the European Fund for Strategic Investment and of the Financial Counsellors working party.

From October 2010 – April 2012, he was Adviser to the Executive Board Director (representing Finland, Norway and Latvia) at the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development in London.

His earlier experience includes counsellor (economics, finance, EU budget, taxation) at the Latvian Permanent Representation to the EU in Brussels and Director in the EU Integration Department at the Ministry of Finance in Riga.