

Philippe Bertho, Bio

Philippe Bertho joined the Bank of France in 1995, holding various positions in banking supervision and internal auditing. He is currently the head of the AML/CFT directorate of the French prudential supervision and resolution authority (ACPR), which is in charge of the supervision of the banking and insurance sectors. He is also the ACPR representative to the AML Standing Committee of the European Banking Authority and the Chair of the AML Expert Group of the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision.

